2. Sing "Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes" to practice identifying different body parts.
3. Play with an empty box. What can you pretend to be or do?
4. Take a walk and make up a song about the things you see.
5. Spend time at lunch talking with your child about what you did that morning.
6. Draw, color, or scribble together!
7. Let your child hold a book and practice turning the pages as you read.
8. Attend a storytime and/or spend time playing at the library.
9. Say hi to a Librarian! We'd love it if you could tell us what you did today, sing us a song, or show us how you can count from 1-10!
